

Writing About the Letter M

E/I-1

Explain the contributions of the letter M to literature, food, and relationships.

E/I-2

What if the letter M were a vowel instead of a consonant? Explain how the English language would be different.

E/I-3

Explain how to make the letter M in both print and cursive. Make your instructions clear and complete. Do not use the name of the letter in your instructions and do not include illustrations.

E/I-4

Explain the following characteristics of the letter M :

- Where to find it
- How it can be used
- How it is different from the letter C

E/I-5

Explain the role of the letter M in American and/or British literature.

E/I-6

Explain the role of the letter M in children's literature. You may discuss authors, books, characters, literary concepts, or any other aspect of children literature.

E/I-7

What problems would we have if the letter M disappeared from the alphabet, taking away everything that starts with M? How could we solve the problems?