

Heroes Ancient, Modern, and Mythic: A Bibliography

Nonfiction and Fiction Books to Promote Heroism in Children of All Ages

This bibliography of books about heroes and heroism has been compiled with the help of many librarians and teachers across the country. It is presented in two sections—one for younger children and another for older children and young adults. It provides nearly two hundred nonfiction titles – as well as some fiction ones – to support teachers as they implement the ELA Common Core State Standards.
