The Reading Recovery Council of Michigan is pleased to announce the return of the RRCM Institute after a one-year hiatus. In 2021, our focus will be Reading Recovery and Literacy Lessons: Powerful Literacy Teaching and Learning. Although the Institute will be virtual this year, we are confident that our outstanding speakers will provide an outstanding and interactive experience for you.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 18: Maria Nichols on Engaging Hearts and Minds Through Purposeful Talk

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 19: Adria Klein, PhD, Trainer and Center Director, Saint Mary’s College of California on Oral Language, Reading and Writing: Scaffolding All Learners (Dr. Klein will also present a breakout session.)

BREAKOUT SESSION SPEAKERS

- Betsy Kaye, PhD, Associate Professor, Department of Literacy and Learning, Texas Woman’s University
- Mary Lose, EdD, Professor, Reading & Language Arts Director, Reading Recovery Center of Michigan, Oakland University
- Journey Swafford, PhD, Associate Project Director for Paths to Literacy Initiatives, Georgia State University
- Annette Torres Elias, PhD, Professor, Department of Literacy and Learning, College of Professional Education, Reading Recovery/Descubriendo la Lectura Trainer, Texas Woman’s University
- Jeff Williams, MA, Author, Literacy Consultant, Reading Recovery Teacher Leader and Lecturer, The Ohio State University

HOW:

Register at: https://rrcm.connect.space/2021-rrcm-institute

Registration Fee: $125 per person

(Includes attendance at the live Institute and access to presenter recordings if permission is granted for a limited time.)

QUESTIONS?

Diane Drago, Institute Coordinator
ddrago@dmsevents.com or 734-747-2746