Teaching

Purposeful Practice: Formative Assessment in Reading Recovery
Jeffery L. Williams
5

Taking Reflection to a Higher Level:
A Study of Teacher Engagement in Intellectual Practice
Lori L. Taylor
17

Features

About the Cover
13

Where Are They Now?
14

The Last Word
72

Implementation

Continue Sailing in a New Direction:
Reading Recovery Teachers as Literacy Leaders
Jamie Lipp
31

Research

Reading Recovery and Complex Adaptive Systems:
Widening Circles for Sustainable Implementation
Marla K. Robertson, Leslie Patterson, Connie Briggs, and Anne Simpson
43

continues Contents
continued

RRCNA

President’s Message
Sustaining and Growing Our Work Requires a New Lens .......................... 59
Jeffery L. Williams

Executive Director’s Message
Partnering to Share Our Deeper Understandings ................................. 60
Jady Johnson

Council News
Federal Appropriations: Comprehensive Literacy State Grants .................. 61
2018–19 RRCNA Board of Directors .................................................. 62
Partners In Excellence — Our Associate Members ............................... 63
Scholarships Help Train Six New Teacher Leaders .............................. 64
Customize Your PD in the New RRCNA e-Learning Center .................. 66
Resources for Reading Owners Closing Doors ..................................... 67
2018 Teacher Leader Institute: Polishing Facets of the Role .................. 68
Get Ready for February in Columbus! .................................................. 69
2019 National Reading Recovery & K–6 Literacy Conference ................. 70

Advertising Index
Heinemann ............................................................... inside back cover