

FINAL QUIZ - PREVIEW

After viewing the video on Page 3, you will be asked to complete a final quiz. You will be required to pass this quiz with a score of 80% or better in order to receive your certificate. Below is a preview of the quiz questions, for you to consider as you are reviewing the video.

Question 1: Below are the 4 ways Braedan asks us to examine bias in our teaching (match each point with the corresponding example)

1. Teaching points that are only about more efficient use of visual information and neglect meaning
2. Teaching points that are not generative. Only about “this word” in “this book” and mostly related to accuracy
3. Prompting the child to use meaning by asking leading questions instead of engaging in authentic conversation
4. Feed forwards or prompts for meaning that are too broad

(Is our language clear? Fold in the cheese!).

(one sided- visual only, neglects meaning)

(Focused on getting this word right today, so the child will get this word right tomorrow).

(What’s another name for “Dad”? Could the child ask themselves this question?)

Question 2: Complete this quote by Marie Clay: (fill in the blank)

“... But the teacher aims to strengthen the child’s ability to search flexibly for information from different sources to [fill in the blank] the meanings of text. She is careful to counteract any imbalance in the child’s use of information”.” LLDI, p. 137
